We've become a nation of wusses. The Chinese are kicking our butt in everything. If this was in China do you think the Chinese would have called off the game? People would have been marching down to the stadium. They would have walked and they would have been doing calculus on the way down...

Steve Wozniak: Apple couldn't emerge in societies like Singapore where 'bad behavior is not tolerated' and people are not taught to think for themselves.

Alexis Ong: Wozniak's comments are really a scathing indictment of the Singapore education system, its strictly regimented curriculum and by-rrote study techniques that sustain the city's "formal culture."

Alexei vs Stephen: Curriculum and Time

Inside photos showed Alexei doing complicated experiments in physics and chemistry and reading aloud from Sister Carrie.

1958

Stephen, by contrast, retreated from a geometry problem on the blackboard and the caption advised, "Stephen amused class with wisecracks about his ineptitude." Seated at a typewriter in typing class, Stephen tells us "I type about one word a minute."

1983 Japan

Our Nation is at risk. Our once unchallenged preeminence in commerce, industry, science, and technological innovation is being overtaken by competitors throughout the world.

the educational foundations of our society are presently being eroded by a rising tide of mediocrity that threatens our very future as a Nation and a people.

We are raising a new generation of Americans that is scientifically and technologically illiterate.

...what they learn and how they learn are subjects of constant debate. Critics see young people as being “fed” learning because they are seldom left on their own to learn in a way of their choice. They have little direct encounters with nature, for example, and little experience with society either. While they have learned a lot, they may not have learned how to learn.
